

This Summer - Enjoy Cocktails & Culture at The Art & Antiques Fair Olympia

This month, take the opportunity to relax, unwind and enjoy the perfect blend of cocktails and culture at the new Mosimann's Jazz Café launching at the 45th Art & Antiques Fair Olympia. Offering a unique and luxurious cultural experience set against the elegant backdrop of the Olympia National Hall, the fair is a must-attend event in the capital's summer calendar.

Opening with an exclusive Preview day on Monday 26 June and closing on Sunday 2 July, guests can expect late night openings, a champagne bar and a 2-for-1 cocktail hour to indulge in from 17.00 until 18.30.

As well as cocktails, fine wine and bubbles, visitors can enjoy Mosimann's bespoke menu that has been created especially for Fair goers.

Guests can intersperse sipping cocktails with shopping for diamond rings or dining tables as they stroll from one of the 160 dealers to the next, enjoying the variety on offer – with works ranging from antiquity to the present day.

So if you're looking for inspiration for your home or searching for quite simply a glamorous London location to drink and dine with a friend, Mosimann's Jazz Café at The Art & Antiques Fair Olympia is a must attend pop up event for one week only.

Mary Claire Boyd, Fair Director at The Art & Antiques Fair Olympia says: "Olympia in June is the place to buy that elusive piece that so many of us dream of owning – the essential destination for interiors inspiration. We are pleased to invite guests to enjoy Cocktail Hour at Mosimann's Jazz Café – where they can celebrate their successful shopping and enjoy the ambience of the Fair, surrounded by hundreds of thousands of pounds worth of incredible pieces."
